Join the German Choir of London, director Barbara Höfling and star of stage and screen Carolyn Pickles for the world premiere of Kieran O'Flaherty's play 'I, Paula Bonhoeffer'.

Inspired by the life of Paula Bonhoeffer, the play tells the story of the Bonhoeffer family, who played a key role in the German resistance against the Nazis, with five of them ultimately paying with their lives.

With the help of music by Scarlatti, Brahms, Schütz and Bach, the play asks questions about war and conscience that are still painfully relevant today and tells the story of a woman who had to suffer what no mother should ever suffer: to lose five children to war and fascism
